

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT

MEGHALAYA, SHILLONG

Press Communiqué

Shillong, 01 May, 2026: The Hon'ble Governor of Meghalaya, Shri C.H. Vijayashankar, today successfully completed his self-enumeration for house listing on the official self-enumeration portal under the upcoming Census of India 2027 and marked the Starting of the Census in the state. By personally participating in this important national exercise, the Hon'ble Governor set an example for citizens to actively engage in the process and contribute towards accurate and reliable data collection. The enumeration was attended by Shri H.C.Chaudhary; Additional Chief Secretary to the Hon'ble Governor, Dr. Pooja Pandey; Commissioner & Secretary to the Government of Meghalaya and State Nodal Officer for Census, Shri Biswajit Pegu; Director of Census Operations, Government of India, Smt. R.M.Kurbah; District Collector of East Khasi Hills along with senior officials of the Directorate of Census Operations, Meghalaya, and the State Government.

Highlighting the significance of the census, the Hon'ble Governor stated that the Census serves as a vital tool for effective governance, planning, and inclusive development. He emphasized that accurate data enables better policy formulation and ensures that government schemes reach every section of society in a targeted and efficient manner.

The Hon'ble Governor also encouraged all citizens of Meghalaya to take part in the self-enumeration for house listing process through the online portal, making the exercise more convenient, transparent, and participatory. He noted that widespread public cooperation will play a crucial role in strengthening the foundation for future development initiatives across the country.

Lok Bhavan urges all residents to actively participate in the Census process and contribute towards building a comprehensive and accurate national database.
